FRANK S. HART  WM. G. HART  CHAS. C. HART  EVERETT H. HART  FREDERICK C. HART

We like to see those with whom we are doing business and we believe others feel the same. The above represents the "SEED HOUSE OF HART'S," Father and Sons, who will take pleasure in serving you.

OFFICE AND WAREHOUSES

Our office and warehouses are situated on Main Street, in Wethersfield, 20 minutes ride on the trolley from Hartford. Cars pass every 15 minutes and stop in front of our warehouse, Station 17. We shall be pleased to have our friends call on us at any time.
Dear Friends:

We welcome the privilege of again presenting to you our Annual Seed Catalog, and with it extend our hearty New Year’s Greetings, and sincerely wish that for you and yours, the year 1924 may be filled with happiness and success.

We thank our friends and customers for the generous business they have given us during past years and for the many kind letters we have received from them, expressing friendship and good will. Surely there is something more than mere bargaining in these business relations of ours—there is human friendship, and every one of us is happier today because of that friendship.

Your loyal support helps us to maintain a large volume of business and it may be of interest to you to know that the volume of our business is increasing every year. We think this fact alone speaks well for our seeds. We take pride in the knowledge that our seeds have always been GOOD but it is our aim to make them BETTER and to this end we have carefully selected the most experienced and reliable growers in the different seed growing sections where we grow our seeds, both in this Country, and in Europe, and customers who use them will have BETTER GARDENS and BETTER CROPS. Reliable and skilled growers must be paid more, which adds to the cost of the seeds,—BUT THE SEEDS ARE WORTH IT. What does a few cents on an ounce or a pound of seeds matter, if you get BETTER SEEDS, BETTER and more TENDER Peas, SWEETER Corn, CRISP, TENDER Lettuce, DELICIOUS Salads, and Flowers that glorify your garden and beautify your home. All this from BETTER SEEDS. BETTER SEEDS are what we wish to sell you and you will have these DELICIOUS Vegetables and BEAUTIFUL Flowers—all for the price of a little seed.

Our interest does not cease with the sale of the seeds for we want your future business and we value your friendship. To us the two are inseparable, and keeping them so will be to our mutual advantage.

We shall be glad to hear from you at any time, and are prepared to give you better service and will fill your orders in full—if we may have them early before stocks become exhausted—no matter how large or how small. We will give every enquiry a prompt and courteous reply.

Sincerely yours, Chas. C. Hart Seed Co.

In last seasons Catalog we gave a history of our business with its different Departments. To those who receive our Catalog this year for the first time, it may be of interest to them to know something about us and we feel sure our old friends will pardon us, if we again give a brief summary of our early history.

In 1892 our Mr. Chas. C Hart started a Consignment Package Seed business in a small way, and two years later formed a partnership with Mr. J. Frank Welles, adding at that time the Wholesale and Seed Growing Department. The business was carried on under the firm name of Hart, Welles & Co., and in 1913 the Mail Order Department was established. In 1916 Mr. Hart purchased the interest of his business associates and took into partnership with him his three oldest sons, under the firm name of Chas. C. Hart Seed Co. The fourth and youngest son came into the firm in 1922.

MAIL ORDER AND RETAIL DEPARTMENT.

In 1913 in response to a steadily growing demand from Gardeners and Truck Farmers who had used our seeds with good results, we added a Retail and Mail Order Department to our business, starting with a small mailing list, and we are this year sending out many thousands of Catalogs.

CONSIGNMENT PACKAGE SEED DEPARTMENT.

In 1892 when our business was first started, we placed out a few hundred of the old fashioned flat seed boxes with nearby stores to be sold on commission. This was the beginning of our Consignment or Package Seed Department which today sends out many thousands of attractive Display Cabinets, packed with Hart’s handsomely lithographed seed packages, to the General Stores, Hardware and Grocery Dealers throughout the east.

It requires millions of these seed packages to supply the demand for Hart’s seeds. The packets are filled by machine, with choice vegetable and flower seeds which are put up fresh every year. The quality of the seeds in our packages, which your Grocer, or Hardware Dealer sells, will be exactly the same as those sent direct. We are confident they will give entire satisfaction and we strongly recommend them.

WHOLESALE DEPARTMENT.

In 1894, two years after the founding of our business, with only a small stock of seeds, a local wholesale trade was started, and today we wholesale in large quantities through this Country and Canada, to Seed Houses, Hardware Dealers and General Stores.

We have, from the start, endeavored to have our customers consider quality with price, and not price alone. Our continued efforts to maintain the highest standard in the quality of our seeds and service rendered, are bringing us new customers each year and we are proud to state that we have as customers today many concerns who started with us 10 years ago.

Although our fertile Connecticut Valley produces some of the best seeds obtainable, we cannot produce all the different varieties we handle, as our soil and climatic conditions are not favorable for the production of certain seeds. Consequently, we have seeds grown for us in practically every seed growing state in this Country, and import large quantities from the seed growing sections of Foreign Countries. Our seeds are sold by Merchants and Dealers in many cities and towns throughout the east and we assure our friends that HART’S SEEDS, purchased from any dealer, either in bulk or in packages, will be seeds of GOOD QUALITY in every respect.

ASPARAGUS

4 to 5 lbs. to the acre.

Culture.—Sow the seed as early in Spring as ground can be worked, in drills 12 to 14 inches apart. When two years old, transplant into permanent beds, well and deeply manured. In setting the roots, spread them out well and cover them to the depth of 6 inches. Very little, if any, should be cut the first year after transplanting, but a fair crop can be cut the second year. Later in the season all the shoots should be allowed to run to seed, and in the Fall all the tops should be cut off, the ground cleaned up, and a good dressing of manure and wood ashes spaded into the bed. An occasional dressing of salt is beneficial and keeps down the weeds.

Conover’s Colossal. The standard variety, and very tender. Pkt. 56, oz. 156, ¼ lb. 356, lb. 856.

Columbia Mammoth White. A large, thick variety; very white, even above ground. Pkt. 56, oz. 156, ¼ lb. 356, lb. 856.

Palmetto. A large, early variety; very popular, and good for shipping. Pkt. 56., oz. 156, ¼ lb. 356, lb. 856.

Asparagus Roots

Strong 1 year old roots of above varieties. Per 50 roots $1.00, per 100 roots $1.50, per 500 roots $6.50, per 1000 roots $8.50.

Strong 2 year old roots of above varieties. Per 50 roots $1.80, per 100 roots $4.75, per 500 roots $8.50, per 1000 roots $12.50.

The Bureau of Plant Industry in the United States Department of Agriculture recommends 1 year old roots as the most satisfactory for transplanting.

Our 1 year old roots are good size, and upon the recommendation of Asparagus experts, customers may set out 1 year old roots with confidence.

New Washington. The new Giant Rust-Proof variety. This new sort is the result of many years work of plant breeding by the U. S. Department of Agriculture. The Washington is a rust-resistant, high yielding strain of Giant Asparagus, and produce uniformly long shoots of superior table qualities. Seed per pkt. 156, oz. 406, ¼ lb. $1.25, 1 lb. $4.00.

Roots, good size. Per 50 roots $2.50, per 100 roots $4.00, per 500 roots $15.00, per 1000 roots $20.00.

ARTICHOKE

Culture.—Sow seeds in April in a prepared bed, in drills a foot apart, and covering seeds an inch deep. When the plants are three inches high, transplant 4 or 5 inches deep in rows 4 feet apart, and 2 feet apart in the row, or a row can be made along side a fence; keep the ground loose by frequent hoeing. In August or September the heads will be fit for use. Before severe cold weather the plants should be protected. Artichokes may also be propagated either by slips or suckers, and should be taken off in May, after they have grown 5 or 6 inches in height and transplanted as before directed.

Green Globe. Heads or buds very large nearly round, and with a dusky purplish tint. The scales, or edible parts are thicker and higher flavored than those of any other Artichoke. Requires ample protection during winter. Pkt. 106, oz. 356, ¼ lb. $1.00.

BEANS

Culture.—Beans require a light, well-drained soil, and should not be planted too early, as they are very sensitive to cold and wet. Plant usually around the first of May, and at intervals throughout the season for a succession, until the latter part of August. Plant in drills about 2 feet apart, and 5 or 6 plants to the foot. Keep well cultivated.

Vegetables and Vitamines

The discovery of the mysterious food element called Vitamines, the nature of which is unknown, but the effect of which measures the difference between health and decline, has been called by Mr. Herbert Hoover; "The most important discovery of modern times."

It has taught us that it is possible to starve on a full stomach, unless the stomach be filled with something more than fats, protein and carbohydrates, formerly considered the chief factors in a complete diet. The additional food elements, to which science has given the names; Vitamines A, B, C, and D, are contained chiefly in milk and leaf vegetables, preferably eaten raw.

Every home gardener, in planning his vegetable garden, will want to consider the value of the various crops, as providers of health giving vitamines and to make it easy, we give a list of the chief sources within his reach.

Vitamine A—promotes growth and its absence causes sore eyes and blindness and stunted growth in children.

Vitamine B—if lacking, brings on gastro-intestinal trouble, neuritis and anemia.

Vitamine C—if lacking, makes people irritable, lacking in stamina and in extreme cases, causes scurvy.

Vitamine D—is a yeast growth promoting element, the definite food value of which has not been determined.

BEANS, eaten green contain fat soluble A, water soluble B and water soluble C.

BEANS, dried kidney, contain water soluble B.

BEANS, dried navy, contain water soluble B.

BEET JUICE, contains a small amount of water soluble B and C.

POTATOES, cooked, contain water soluble B and C.

SWISS CHARD, contains fat soluble A and water soluble B.

SPINACH, contains fat soluble A and water soluble B.

TOMATOES, contain fat soluble A and water soluble B and C.

TURNIPS, cooked, contain water soluble B and C.

This list will permit the home gardener to balance his family diet throughout the harvest season and to provide a store of winter foods which will keep his household free from the depressing effects of the absence of vitamins. It was this absence, we now know, that made our grandfathers dull in the winter months, which made them feel the need of a "Spring Tonic to clear the Blood" and caused the delight with which they welcomed "the first spring greens". The above list is the best obtainable at this stage of the Vitamine investigation and is admittedly incomplete. There is every reason to believe that all vegetables contain these elements in one form or another and everything that can be grown in the garden and brought on our tables in a fresh or wholesomely preserved condition, will contribute to health, which is denied to him who depends upon "store foods" for his diet.

BEETS  TABLE VARIETIES

Crosby's Egyptian

These are popular in all gardens, and as a rule are a very profitable crop for market gardeners. Beets fresh from the garden are always more tender and delicious than those that are shipped from a distance, or from a peddler's wagon after they have been bunched for three or four days. They can be sown in succession for different seasons and if too many are produced for table use, make excellent use for poultry and stock.

Culture.—The best results are obtained on a deep, rich, sandy loam. Sow as early as ground can be prepared, in drills, 14 to 18 inches apart, and thin out to 3 inches in the row. Always sow in freshly prepared soil, which should be pressed firmly over the seed. For Winter use, sow from last of June to last of July.

A large proportion of the beet seed that is used in this country is grown in Europe, but on account of extremely unfavorable growing conditions, the European Beet seed crops were almost a failure, causing a shortage throughout the country.

Sow at the rate of 6 to 8 lbs. to the acre.

Note.—The value of Mangels and Sugar Beets for stock feeding is clearly seen in the improved health and condition of animals, the increased flow and quality of milk from cows, and the saving in fodder. Everyone who keeps seven one-cow should grow a patch of either Mangels or Sugar Beets for Winter feed.

CABBAGE

Cultivation.—To grow Cabbage successfully the ground must be highly manured and thoroughly worked. For very early plants, the seed is often sown last of September, and protected in coldframes through the Winter. But the more common way is to sow in hotbeds in February or March, and while plants are very small, prick them out into coldframes to be transplanted later, when danger of frost is past. For late crops sow in May. Set plants in rows 2 to 2½ feet apart, and 18 inches in the row.

One ounce of seed will produce about 2000 plants.

"SEEDS THAT WILL GROW."

CHAS. C. HART SEED CO. —13— WETHERSFIELD, CONN.

All Seasons. One of the finest of the second early sorts. The heads are hard and solid, and flattened on top. It is called All Seasons because it is good for Autumn and Winter as for early Summer. Pkt. 10¢, oz. 20¢, ¼ lb. 75¢, lb. $2.50.

Chinese, or Celery Cabbage (Pe-Tsai)

Grows like Cos-Lettuce and when its outer leaves are stripped off shows a picture of Lettuce and Celery combined. Shredded it makes the finest slaw, and stripped of its mid-ribs which are eaten as Celery, it makes a fine salad, or it may be cooked like Asparagus. It possesses a very mild and pleasant flavor.

Sow the seed like regular Cabbage. If for early planting sow in hotbeds in February or March; if for later planting, sow early in July. It will mature 12 to 15 weeks from time of sowing seed, and will not stand frost.

Potting. Big, compact, tender, and crisp and one of the best for the early Summer months, but does well all the season. It is vigorous, and free from insects. Pkt. 10¢, oz. 35¢, ¼ lb. $1.25, lb. $4.00.

CAULIFLOWER

Culture.—The culture of Cauliflower is much the same as that of Cabbage. The soil should be made rich, and be thoroughly cultivated. Sow seed in hotbed early in March, and when sufficiently large, transplant in coldframes, and gradually harden by exposure. As early as weather will permit, set in the open ground in rows 3 feet apart, and 2 feet in the row. For late Fall crops, sow at same time and treat in same manner as for late Cabbage. Cauliflower will not head in hot, dry weather; therefore, planting should be regulated so they will head either in early Summer or Autumn. Keep well watered when they begin to head. If the leaves are drawn up and tied loosely over the head, it will hasten blanching.

One ounce will produce about 2000 plants.

Danish Giant, or Dry Weather. Especially adapted for growing in the open ground. It heads well in dry seasons when other varieties often fail. A second early sort producing medium to large heads. Very solid, pure white, and of fine quality. Pkt. 20¢, oz. $2.00, ¼ lb. $7.00, 1 lb. $25.00.

Early Snowball. The best and most popular early dwarf variety grown, producing large, white, solid heads and a sure header. Pkt. 20¢, oz. $2.00, ¼ lb. $7.50, lb. $25.00.

“SEEDS THAT WILL GROW.”

CHAS. C. HART SEED CO.

WETHERSFIELD, CONN.

CELEY

Culture.—Sow the seed in the open ground as early as ground can be worked. The seed is slow to germinate and should be sown in rows where it is intended to remain, the plants should be thinned out when 3 or 4 inches high, to 5 or 6 inches apart, and plants to be taken may be transplanted. When transplanting, clip off the tops and ends of the roots to make the plants stocky. Rows should be 4 or 5 feet apart, and plants 3 or 5 inches apart in the row. After planting, the earth should be added to the plants to blanch or whiten them. Continue hilling or banking them at intervals until cold weather, when they should be taken up and put in a pit or cellar for Winter use. To get very early plants, seed should be started in boxes or hotbeds, and if grown too large before time to set them out in the open, clip off the tops to make them grow stocky.

An ounce of seed will produce 3000 plants.

Winter Queen. A fine Winter variety; grows large, and is of fine flavor. Pkt. 100, oz. 25¢, ¼ lb. 75¢, lb. $2.50.

White Plume. A very desirable, early variety, that can be blanched for use early in the Fall; tender and fine flavor. Pkt. 100, oz. 30¢, ¼ lb. 85¢, lb. $3.00.

Easy Blanching. A new variety somewhat resembling Golden Self Blanching in size and shape, but the leaves are green, and the stalks blanch white instead of yellow. Very hardy and less liable to blight. An excellent winter keeper, as well as an early celery. One of the easiest to blanch and one of the best in quality. Pkt. 100, oz. 50¢, ¼ lb. $1.50, lb. $5.00.

CARROT

Culture.—Like all root crops, a rich, deeply cultivated soil that has been well manured for some previous crop, is most suitable for Carrot. Newly manured ground has a tendency to produce forked roots. For early crops sow as early as ground can be worked, and for later crops sow up to the first of June. Sow in rows 14 inches apart, and cover not over half-inch, and thin to 3 inches in the row.

An ounce will sow 100 feet of drill (8 to 4 lbs. to an acre.)

Much of the Sweet Corn seed that is offered is produced in the West, where it can be grown much cheaper than it can in the East. But the West, with its level country, high winds, and vast areas of Field Corn, which mixes with the Sweet Corn, destroys that luscious sweetness so much prized in our Connecticut-grown seed. Our Sweet Corn seed is all grown here at home, where we make a specialty of growing the choicest strains. Our seed has the reputation of producing the nicest and sweetest Corn to be found. Our friends will be sure of getting something nice if they buy their Sweet Corn from us. Sweet Corn can be raised on any good, ordinary soil, but it should be deeply and thoroughly worked before planting, and cultivated frequently. 8 to 10 oz. required for an acre, if planted in hills.

The plants form roots which by Oct. 1st will have a thickness of 2 to 3 inches, and stalks of leaves that grow like Cos or Romaine Lettuce. About the middle of October, by which time they should be fully grown, tie the leaves closely together, and blanch like Celery, either by placing boards against them, or by banking up with soil. Two or three weeks are sufficient to whiten the hearts for use. They may be taken up, roots and all, and stored in a cool cellar, or trenched like Celery; in this way the hearts will whiten and they can be kept all Winter to be used as wanted.

One ounce will sow 100 feet of row.

After all danger from cold nights is past, gradually harden by exposure and transplant in the open ground, 2 feet apart. Shade, when first transplanted, and protect from the potato bug, which is one of the worst obstacles encountered in Egg Plant culture. Draw earth up to stem when about 1 foot high.

Culture.—No vegetable is more universally used than Lettuce, and to be thoroughly appreciated it must be brought to the table fresh and unwilted; quality depends largely upon rapid and vigorous growth. Have the soil well enriched and keep it moist. Give it plenty of water, and you will have delicious, tender Lettuce. Sow in hotbed in March, and transplant, for very early plants. For general use, sow in the open ground, as early as ground can be worked, in drills 14 inches apart; thin out as they grow. To get good heads, plants should be 10 inches apart in the row. For a succession sow every two or three weeks during the season.

CHAS. C. HART SEED CO. —21— WETHERSFIELD, CONN.

THE ALL SEASON SALAD GARDEN.

"Fresh Green Salad Every Day, does more than an apple to keep the Doctor away."

Even before the importance of "Vitamines" in the diet was discovered, the value of fresh raw vegetables was realized and a salad was part of every well served luncheon or dinner in good restaurants and prosperous homes. The discovery of "Vitamines" changed the daily salad course from a luxury to a necessity, which it is foolish to do without.

With ten square feet or more of ground, and a dollars worth of seeds, it is possible to enjoy green salads from a "back yard" garden from early May until Christmas time, provided a small cold frame is available. The first things to plant are Lettuce and Radishes. They may be started in a box indoors, in February or early March, or in a cold frame in March, or even earlier in a hot bed, and all may be transplanted in the open ground as soon as it can be worked.

Cabbage is an excellent salad plant. Seeds sown in a box indoors in February, may be transplanted to a cold frame in March and set out in the open ground in April. Tomatoes may also be sown indoors a little later than Cabbage and the plants brought along in paper pots or a cold frame until danger of frost is past, when they may be set in the garden. Cucumbers may be started early indoors in flower pots, in a hot bed on square pieces of sod, turned soil up, or in strawberry baskets filled with soil, and when all danger of frost is past, sod or basket can be set in the ground without disturbing the plant.

Onion Sets for young onions may be planted as early as the ground can be worked. Onion seed may be sown at the same time.

Egyptian Onions set out in September will live through the winter and make tender young onions for bunching, the first green vegetable of the spring.

In June preparations for the fall salad garden should be begun. A succession of Lettuce may be kept up until hot mid-summer and started again in the early fall. During August, the Tomato and Cucumber harvest will be at its height, with Cabbages at their best to supply green leaves. Chinese Cabbage and Endive are excellent fall salad crops and should be sown in July. They will mature in the cool moist fall days, and stand the early frosts without injury. The white bleached heads of Endive, curled or broad leaved, need a touch of frost to sweeten their flavor. Chinese Cabbage may be stored like ordinary Cabbage and kept long into the winter.

Dandelion seed, sown early in August or early September, will make delicious greens early in the spring.

Witloof Chicory, or French Endive is an excellent winter salad. It is sown in the spring and grown until fall, being properly thinned out to form good roots. The roots are dug and allowed to freeze. They are then taken into a warm basement and packed close together in a box of soil; then forced into growth in the dark. They send up white crisp shoots which are eaten.
MUSKMELON

Culture.—A warm, rich, sandy loam is best adapted for Melon culture. The middle of May is early enough for planting in the open ground, but the crop can be forced by starting in hotbed on sods and transplanting same as Cucumbers. Plant in hills 5 to 6 feet apart each way. When danger from bugs is over, thin to 3 or 4 plants in a hill. When the main shoot is a few feet long, pinch off the ends to force the laterals on which the fruit is borne.

One ounce for 50 hills; 8 lbs. for an acre.

ONION

Culture.—The most important thing in growing Onions is to have good seed—seed that will come up and produce the variety you want. Being growers and farmers ourselves we fully appreciate the importance of this item, and our customers may have perfect confidence that the seed we send them will be bright in every particular. The soil for Onions should be a rich loam, thoroughly enriched with well rotted manure, and the soil well pulverized before sowing the seed. Sow the seed as early in the Spring as ground can be worked, in drills 1½ inches apart, covering one-quarter to one-half inch. Begin cultivating as soon as rows can be plainly seen, and keep them clean, for if Onions once get choked by weeds they never produce so good, or pull a crop. A top dressing of wood ashes applied after second weeding and, cultivated in, is beneficial. One ounce will sow 100 feet of drill; 8 lbs. to the acre.

Write for special prices on lots of five pounds and over.

PARSLEY

Used for garnishing meats, and for flavoring.

Culture.—The seed is very slow to germinate; usually from two to three weeks will elapse after sowing, before the plants make an appearance. To hasten it, soak the seed a few hours in tepid water, and when it swells, sow thickly in shallow drills, about 14 inches apart; cover lightly, and firm the soil on the seed, thin out to 2 or 3 inches in the row. For Winter use, protect in coldframes or a light cellar.

Hamburg Parsley is cultivated for its roots and should be treated in same manner as Carrots.

One ounce will sow 160 feet of drill.

Champion Moss Curled. The best variety for market and home use; is beautifully crimped and curled. Pkt. 5¢, oz. 15¢, ¼ lb. 35¢, lb. $1.00.

Hamburg, or Turnip-Rooted. The root, which resembles a small Parsnip, is the edible portion and is used for flavoring soups, etc. Pkt. 5¢, oz. 15¢, ¼ lb. 35¢, lb. $1.00.
PARSNIP

Culture.—As this is so slow to germinate, plant only new seed and sow very liberally. Parsnips do best in a deep, rich, sandy loam, but will make good roots on any soil that is deep and mellow and moderately rich. Sow early in Spring in rows 14 to 16 inches apart, cover not over half an inch and press the earth firmly on the seed. Thin out to 4 inches in the rows. Parsnips are improved by frost, therefore part of the crop should be left out in the ground over Winter.

Champion Hollow Crown. An improved strain of Hollow Crown. This has been selected for its handsome form, whiteness of skin and flesh, good size and freedom from tendency to side roots and for its superior quality. Pkt. $1.00, oz. 15¢, ¼ lb. 35¢, lb. $1.00.

PEPPER

Culture.—Sow seed in the hotbed in April, or in a warm, sheltered spot out of doors in May. When weather becomes settled and warm, transplant into rows 2 feet apart and 18 inches in the row. Cultivate often and draw up the earth a little to support the stems.

One ounce will produce about 2000 plants.

Thin to about 1 foot apart in the row. The pods are in best condition to use when from 1 to 3 inches long.

PEAS

Culture.—For First Early crop sow the Extra Early Smooth Peas and plant as early as land can be worked. Select a rich, light, sandy soil, and cover lightly, and they will mature quicker and can be cleaned up in two plantings. Wrinkled Peas should be planted thinner, as they are not as hardy as the smooth sorts, but are sweeter and better flavored, and do best in a deep, rich loam. Avoid using coarse, rank manure, as it drives the plants to vines without pods. For market crops, sow in rows, 2½ to 4 feet apart, according to the variety. In the private home garden, where they will be cultivated by hand, the tall sorts may be planted in double rows, 6 or 8 inches apart, sticking brush firmly in the ground between the rows, or they may be planted in single rows 3 feet apart and chicken wire used for the vines to run on. The dwarf sorts may be planted 1½ to 2 feet apart. Cover from 2 to 4 inches, according to the character of the soil and time of planting. Lightest on heavy soil and early planting, and deepest on light soil and late planting. Deep planting has a tendency to prevent mildew and prolongs the bearing season, yet on cold, heavy soil the seed is liable to rot if planted deep. If drills are made 5 inches deep and the seed is covered only 1 or 2 inches, the earth can be gradually drawn into the trench as the vines grow. In this way a good stand can be had at a good depth. A succession of the same varieties may be had by sowing every two weeks.

One quart will plant about 100 feet of drill; 2 to 3 bushels for an acre.

One quart will weigh about 2 lbs.

Culture.—The Potato will thrive in almost any soil or climate. Old sod plowed the previous Fall will produce the most abundant and certain crop. On no other crop are the results from the use of phosphates more manifest than on the Potato. Organic manure promotes rot and other diseases, while commercial fertilizers prevent them, and will grow smooth, fine tubers. Plant as early in Spring as ground can be thoroughly worked, in rows 2½ feet apart, and 15 to 18 inches apart in the row. Cut one or two eyes from the surface to the center of the tuber, and plant in each hill; cover 3 or 4 inches. Cultivate frequently from the time the young plants appear until they blossom. Seed should be renewed every year or two.

From 8 to 10 bushels required to plant an acre.

RADISH

Culture.—Radishes to be mild, crisp and tender must make a steady, rapid growth; therefore a rich, light, sandy soil is best adapted for their culture. Where possible, give them plenty of water, which forces them along. If it is too dry they are apt to be strong, wormy and pithy. For early use sow in hotbeds on gentle heat, in rows 6 inches apart, and thin enough to prevent crowding. They should be large enough to use in four or five weeks from time of planting. Plant in the open ground soon as land can be worked, in rows 10 to 12 inches apart. For succession, sow every week or ten days as long as wanted. The Winter varieties should be sown in July or August, taken up before severe frost and stored in a cool cellar, packed in sand for Winter use.

TOMATO

Culture.—Tomatoes do best on a light, warm, not over-rich soil. For early plants sow in March or April in the hotbed, in drills 3 inches apart, 4 or 5 seeds to the inch; cover lightly. Or they may be started in boxes in some sunny window in the house. Transplant when 2 inches high into other hotbeds or into boxes, or single pots, and place in the frames. Avoid crowding the plants; 4 inches is as near as they should stand in the frames. Lift the sash on warm, sunny days, and 2 or 3 weeks before setting outside gradually harden them by exposure to the night air. Set 4 feet apart each way in the open ground in May as soon as danger from frost is past. For later use sow in the open ground in May, and transplant when large enough to handle. By training the vines on trellises, or tying them up to stakes, the fruit will ripen better, be of superior quality, and increase their productiveness.

One ounce will produce about 1800 plants.

TURNIP

Culture.—For the main crop the old rule is good: “Sow Turnips the 25th of July, wet or dry.” Yet fine crops of large, smooth Turnips are often grown from seed sown early in August. New land, plowed the previous Spring, thoroughly harrowed, and given a liberal dressing of some good commercial fertilizer, will produce the best crops. Sow broadcast and rake or brush in. For Summer use sow the early flat varieties, as early as the ground can be worked, in drills 14 inches apart; cover lightly and thin to 6 or 8 inches in the row. Avoid using fresh manure, as it produces rough, scabby, worthless Turnips.

The Herbs should be harvested on a dry day, just before they come into full bloom, and dried quickly. They may be hung in a dry, cool loft or garret until they are needed for use.

LAWN GRASS SEED

The lawn is the final touch to the finished house. Whether it is planned by a skilled architect, and built at great expense, or whether it is built on the simple plan compelled by economy, a well made lawn will improve the most handsome, and soften the lines of the simplest structure. It is the one necessary touch of nature within the reach of all.

Take Care of the Soil, We Will Take Care of the Seed

If but one-half the care were bestowed on the preparation of the soil as we devote to the care of the seed, there would be many better lawns. The soil problem is the biggest of all. How often in building a house, the lifeless sub-soil is thrown out from the cellar excavation, covering the good top soil and thus placing it way beyond the reach of the roots. This mistake once made is only remedied at great expense. It is economy, and quite essential to enrich the soil with suitable fertilizers of lasting character before sowing the seed.

We Do Not Use any Chaff to Cheapen Our Seed as Many Do

Our mixture is composed of only the best evergreen, perennial, thick-swarding grasses, blended in proportions to secure an even turf and a lasting lawn. The quality of the grasses used in our mixture is plainly indicated by the heavy well-developed seed.

Our mixture weighs 20 lbs. to the bushel. One pound will sow about 300 square feet of new ground. 20 lbs. about one-eighth of an acre.

Culture.—April and May are two good months to lay down a lawn and sow the seed. August and September are also good months and give the grass time to make a good growth before winter sets in. Seed does not start well during the hot, dry midsummer months.

After sowing, the ground should be rolled in order to press the seed firmly in the soil, and should be rolled over every Spring as soon as frost is out of the ground. All lawns are benefited by frequent mowing, but do not cut too close in hot, dry weather, or too late in the Fall.

Lawn Grass. Hart’s Special Mixture 40c. per lb. Per Bu. of 20 lbs. $6.00

“ “ Evergreen Choice Mixture 35c. per lb. Per Bu. of 20 lbs. $5.00

“ “ Shady Place Mixture 45c. per lb. Per Bu. of 20 lbs $8.00

Pulverized Sheep Manure, as a top dressing for lawns has no equal, about one pound to every 30 square feet should be applied two or three times during the season preferable just before or after a rain. It will stimulate the grass, in fact make a new lawn of it.

Prices: 5 lbs. 35¢, 10 lbs. 60¢, 25 lbs. $1.00, 50 lbs. $1.75, 100 lbs. $2.00, 5 bags $14.00, ½ ton $24.00, ton $43.00.

If more than a bushel of Lawn Grass Seed is wanted, write us for prices.
We handle only the best grades of grass seeds. The cost to seed down an acre of the best grade is only a very little more than for a poorer grade, possibly 12¢ to 50¢, but the difference in the crop of hay may be many dollars in favor of the better grade. Remember, the Red is always the cheapest in the end. Owing to the variations in market values, we are not always able, at the time our Catalog is printed, to quote fixed Spring prices, but we guarantee our prices will be as low as the market will permit. We shall be glad, however, to quote prices at any time, on any quantity, and invite your correspondence.

FLOWER SEEDS

Sowing the Seed. Nine-tenths of the failures in flower culture come from improper treatment of the seeds and young plants. Do not plant any of the seeds when the ground is wet. Make the surface as fine and smooth as possible. Cover each sort of seed in proportion to its size. The finest seeds should be merely sprinkled on the surface of the ground, and barely covered with finely sifted, light, mellow soil. Press the soil down firmly over the seed; a short piece of board is good for this. For large seeds the depth should be regulated according to the size of the seed. Procure a bit of lath (it would be better if planed smooth), say 2 feet long, press the edge down into the soil evenly, so as to make a groove as deep as the seed is to be planted; scatter the seed along this, allowing 4 or 5 of the larger, to 15 or 20 of the smaller seeds to the space one plant is to occupy when grown; cover the seed by pressing the earth together over it, then turn your lath sideways, and press the soil down firmly and evenly. Shade the rows until after seed is up. It prevents the soil from crusting, and saves the young tender chits from being burned up by the hot sun as they start to come through the ground.

Annuals bloom from seed the first year, and die and bloom the next, though some varieties bloom the first season when sown early.

Biennials grow from seed the first year, and bloom and die the next, though some varieties bloom the first season when sown early.

Perennials last for several years, blooming annually after the first season, though some varieties will bloom the first season if sown early.

SWEET PEAS

Culture.—Sweet Peas are, without doubt, the most beautiful and fragrant, and more generally grown than any other flower. They are of easy culture. The best way is to make a drill about 5 inches deep dropping 4 or 5 seeds every 4 inches and covering about 2 inches, working the soil around the plant as it comes up, until it is on a level with the surface; this leaves the roots deep enough not to be affected by dry weather. They require an abundance of water. If water is applied, it should be at the roots, and not sprinkled on the vines. A trellis of brush, strings, or chicken wire is necessary. They bloom better if picked every day. Sweet Peas have been improved and developed to such an extent that there is a long list of names, many so similar that it is hard to see any difference except slight shades and markings of colors, and forms of hoods, or length of stems. For this reason, we have discarded from our list all dupli-cates, and offer only the best and distinct varieties of each of the separate colors.

GLADIOLI

The Gladioli is one of the most decorative plants in the garden, and as a cut flower lends itself readily to any arrangement. If the spikes are cut when the lowest flower is in bloom, the others will open in succession and remain fresh a week or more. No flower has gained more rapidly in public favor than the Gladiolus.

Gladioli will thrive in almost any good soil except a stiff clay. The row or bed should be 8 to 10 inches deep, and then spread a liberal amount of good fertilizer in the bottom of the row or bed, and rake in thoroughly before planting bulbs. Avoid rank manure. Stable dressing, and also hen dressing can be used if applied properly, but it must be put in the bottom, then cover with fully 1 to 2 inches of soil before the bulbs are planted. Plant the bulbs 6 to 8 inches apart, having sprout or eye facing upward, and cover about 4 inches deep. Cultivate frequently until they commence to flower.

Up to 3 doz. mailed free to any address.

FARMoGERM and HUMOGERM
INCORPORATING CULTURES
THAT INCREASE CROP PRODUCTION AND GREATLY IMPROVE THE SOIL

Crop and soil experts agree that for best growth, and to put atmospheric nitrogen in the soil, it will pay all farmers to inoculate all legumes, even where they are at present successfully grown. The cost is trivial when compared with the profit it will bring you. Legumes are clovers, peas and beans, alfalfa, soy beans, vetches and other plants that grow their seeds in a pod. Their roots are the home of bacteria that draw fertility-building nitrogen from the air and store it in swellings on the roots, called nodules. These nodules not only feed nitrogen to the crop they are on, but rot away in the ground and supply valuable nitrogen to the soil for future crops of corn, grain and fruits.

CULTURES AS YOU WANT THEM

Inoculating bacteria may be carried in two ways—on jelly media or on soil media, and we offer what we consider the best of each kind. FARMoGERM has long been recognized as the most virile and biggest result-producing culture on the market. It is in bottles, nitrogen-free jelly media, patented ventilating stopper, guaranteeing it to be fresh, on the acre basis. HUMOGERM contains the high-bred FARMoGERM bacteria carried in a specially prepared humus soil media. It is sold in cans on bushel basis. Both are easy to apply; directions on each package; either will give thorough inoculation.

Specify the kind of seed you wish to inoculate. Order Farmo Germ by the acre; Humo Germ by the bushel of seed to be planted—and if planting more than one bushel to the acre, the one bushel size contains sufficient inoculation for the amount of seed planted on one acre.

STIM-U-PLANT

AN ALL-THE-YEAR FERTILIZER FOR GARDEN AND HOUSE PLANTS
MAKE YOUR GARDEN A WONDER GARDEN.

It is easy. Market growers know the secret. Follow it and you will have the largest crops of fruits and vegetables, and an abundance of the largest and sweetest-scented flowers of the most intense and vivid colors.

Here is the secret:

Science has produced a tablet that is rich in plant food, containing 11 per cent Nitrogen, 12 per cent Phosphoric Acid and 15 per cent Potash, and it is odorless and clean. Compare this analysis with that of any other fertilizer. Each tablet contains highly concentrated, immediately available plant food and enables the grower to control the development of plants. They increase production, heighten color and improve quality. Their use is highly profitable.

Simply insert tablets in the soil. Or, four tablets dissolved in a gallon of water is the solution used. Do not spray on the foliage. A tablet every two weeks—until three or four have been used—will make cucumbers, squash and melons fairly jump.

In hills, for other plants than vines, use one tablet to each hill.

For cherry and peach trees, or rose bushes, use two tablets around the base of each plant.

In flower-beds and borders, place tablets one foot apart.

For violets, pansies, pansies, dahlia will be greatly benefited by inserting 2 or 3 tablets in the ground in a radius about 4 inches from stem.

Gladioli are greatly improved by inserting the tablets 3 or 4 inches apart along the row, or one near each plant.

For vetches and clover, use one tablet for every inch of row. For one or two tablets to the gallon is the best rate. We have found that rate of one or two tablets to the gallon is the best rate. We have found that rate of one or two tablets to the gallon is the best rate.

For ferns, hyacinths, geraniums—all potted plants—in 6-inch pots or smaller, insert half a tablet in soil approximately every ten days at first, then as plant needs it; larger pots, 1 tablet; bush shrubs, in buckets, 2 tablets.

For roses, two or three tablets in soil every ten days or two weeks during period you wish to stimulate them. The effect will be immediate.

Tomatoes—tablet or liquid application will cause vines to hold more blossoms for development and improve quality and quantity of fruit.

One of the best Cultivators on the market. It has a scuffle Hoe, a Plow, and five Cultivator Teeth, all permanently attached to a revolving steel casting. Any of these tools may be securely locked into working position by a few turns of the hand wheel. No lost attachments or wrenches to look for, it is a time-saver, and works so easy, without giving you a lame back—it keeps you smiling.

The Midget Seeder can be easily attached on the revolving center casting in place of the plow.

Price of Cultivator, $8.50.

MOST POPULAR SEEDER MADE

The Midget Seeder will pay for itself in a short time, because it saves seed by sowing accurately. Sowing by hand wastes seed. It is very easy to operate and drills almost any kind of garden seed from the smallest, up to, and including peas and beans. It will sow a 56 package of seed just as accurately as a larger amount. The index is in plain view and easily adjusted. The shoe is adjustable for any depth desired, and the coverer swings free. The Midget opens the furrows, sows the seed and covers up, all in one operation. It is sold with handle complete, or without, and may be easily attached to any wheel Cultivator. Hopper holds one pint. Price, with handle, $5.50; price, without handle, $4.80.

QUICK-AND-SURE PULVERIZED SHEEP MANURE

Natures Best Fertilizer for Lawns, Flowers, Plants, Greenhouses and the Vegetable Garden, Fruit Trees, Berries and Small Fruits.

This is a pure natural manure from the stock yards at Chicago, the best and strongest in fertilizing and enriching elements of all nature's fertilizer, containing nitrogen, phosphoric acid and potash in liberal proportions. As a top-dressing for lawns, it has no equal, and there is nothing better for the vegetable and flower garden. It can be applied any time of the year without injury to the plant or foliage. Its effect is immediate, much more lasting and healthier than commercial fertilizers or any other manure. For mixing with soil and spreading broadcast on the garden, use one part manure to six parts soil; for making a liquid, use one pound manure to five gallons water; this can be used with safety, daily, if necessary. For top-dressing for an old lawn, about one pound to every 30 square feet should be applied two or three times during the season, preferably just before, or after a rain. It will stimulate the grass, in fact make a new lawn of it.

Analysis: Nitrogen 1.25% Equivalent to Ammonia 1.5%. Total Phos. Acid 1.00% Potash 2.50%

Prices: 5 lbs., $5.50, 10 lbs., 90¢, 25 lbs., $1.75, 50 lbs., $3.25, 100 lbs., $7.00, 5 Bags $14.00, 1/2 Ton $24.00, 1 Ton $43.00.

If more than One Ton is wanted, write for prices.
